Press Release

New Executive Director Named at Partners In Education

Toledo, Ohio, October 30, 2007: Eileen Kerner is the new Executive Director of Partners In Education of Toledo, a non-profit organization dedicated to fostering connections between businesses and individuals from the community and Toledo's schools.

As Executive Director, Kerner will recruit area businesses to form lasting partnerships with public and select Catholic schools located in Toledo. "I am delighted to be given this role at a time when public education needs all the community support it can find," Kerner said. "Partners In Education is the bridge between the young people in our public schools and the dedicated business leaders and individuals in our community who care so deeply about the future of public education."

A graduate of the University of Toledo, Kerner brings a wealth of professional and volunteer experience to Partners In Education:

- Development work for the Catholic Diocese of Toledo
- Fundraising management for ProMedica Health System
- President of the Performing Arts Council of Toledo Board of Trustees

"Eileen's experience and leadership skills are a perfect fit for our organization," according to Partners In Education Board President Mark Rasmus. "The Board of Trustees is excited about the future with Eileen at the helm." Kerner's appointment follows an extensive candidate search.

Businesses or individuals wishing to participate or volunteer with Partners In Education, please call 419.242.2122 or visit the organization's website at <http://www.partnerstoledo.org>.
